5. LLM) Called Mr. Allan Johnson, Office of Management and Budget, on the status of the Agency's proposed retiremen legislation. He said that the only outstanding request for comment was with the Civil Service Commission and they expected to receive this report shortly.
JMM) Mr. Warner and I met with House Minority Leader Gerald Ford in connection with the request of Chairman Celler of the Special Subcommittee of House Judiciary to investigate charges against Justice Douglas for any information bearing on the case. See Memo for Record.
7. JMM) Ed Braswell, Senate Armed Services Committed staff, called to say that he had indications that since Fulbright, Symington and others might try to go into the Agency budget, its Laos operations, an other sensitive matters during the upcoming military authorization bill, Stennis wished to be able, in such event, to say that he has been fully briefed on the Agency budget, and would like to be armed with other material for use if debate on these issues materializes.
